

Fulton County. Mr. Marks belonged to Company A, 3d Ohio Cavalry in the war of 1861-5. He served as General Wood's body guard, dispatch carrier, etc., but was discharged on account of sickness, in 1862, and afterwards re-enlisted in the one hundred days' service. Mr. M. settled in Fulton County, in 1845. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan. Business, farmer, section 11.

PELEG S. LEE and his wife Rebecca W. (Sheffield) Lee, were born in Chesterfield Township, Fulton County, Ohio, March 2, 1845, and December 22, 1843. They were married January 1, 1865. Their children are as follows: Sarah M., born December 5, 1865; Huldah A., born June 4, 1867; Alma E., born July 2, 1869; Lucy B., born September 14, 1870; Lyman D., born December 6, 1871; Mary S., born June 12, 1872; Rosa M., born February 1, 1875. David and Huldah (Standish) Lee, parents of P. S. Lee, were residents of Fulton County, where the former died, in 1850. The latter was born in New York, in 1819, and still resides in Fulton County. Jeremiah and Sarah (Wait) Sheffield, parents of Mrs. Lee, were born, the former in New York, and the latter in England. The subject of this sketch enlisted in Company D, 130th Regiment O. V. I., in the year 1864. He was on active duty in Virginia four months. Mr. Lee settled in Fulton County, in 1845, and has been for six years proprietor of the state line cheese manufactory. This establishment has a rapidly increasing business; the first year they manufactured four thousand pounds of cheese, and now (1876) they manufacture from one hundred and fifty to two hundred thousand pounds. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan, section 11.

FREDERICK A. DENSON, son of Wesley and Mary (Carle) Denson, who settled in Fulton County, in 1862, was born in Cheung County, New York, July 31, 1844. He was married in Fulton County, Ohio, December 22, 1869, to Adaline, daughter of Lyman and Huldah Beebe, who was born in Fulton County, November 27, 1842. Their children are: Velma L., born December 27, 1871, and Elmina, born July 5, 1873. Mr. D. enlisted in Company G, 6th Michigan Cavalry, in 1864. He was engaged in twenty different battles, was captured at Sandy Ridge and taken to Appomattox court-house and retained thirty-four days, until Lee's surrender. At the close of the war his regiment was sent to Montana Territory, was afterwards transferred to 1st Michigan Cavalry and sent to Utah Territory, and was discharged at Fort Bridger, in 1866. Mr. D. has filled the office of township assessor and other offices of trust in the township. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan. Business, farmer and dairyman, section 11.

THOMAS S. PHELPS, is a son of Henry and Naomi (Smith) Phelps, the former a native of New York, the latter of Medina County, Ohio, where they both died in 1849. Mr. Phelps was born in Medina County, February 15, 1845, and married in Williams County, Ohio, July 5, 1868, to Joan, daughter of George W. and Sophia Wilcox, the former of Canada, the latter of New York, both of whom reside in Hillsdale, Michigan. Mrs. P. was born in Branch County, Michigan, December 18, 1845. They have a family of three children living, and one deceased: Gertrude M., born December 2, 1869; Hattie L., born November 8, 1871; Burton H., born April 13, 1874. Mr. P. enlisted in the Union army as one of the O. V. G., May 13, 1864, and served in Virginia four months, and was discharged. He enlisted again, February 15, 1865, in Company D, 195th Regiment O. V. I., and was discharged in Virginia, December 18, 1865. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan. Business, farmer and dairyman, section 22.

OSCAR G. HART and his wife Julia E. (Nichols) Hart, were born in New York, the former in Genesee County, May 6, 1838, the latter in Wayne County, New York, September 4, 1841. They were married in Hillsdale, Michigan, November 1, 1863. Their children are: Marion, born September 6, 1864; Milo, born June 12, 1866; William, born June 9, 1868; Cora, born February 14, 1870, and Ervin, born October 9, 1873. Preston and Sarah (Shoals) Hart, parents of Oscar G., were both natives of New York; the former resides in Fulton County, the latter died in Pennsylvania, December 24, 1860. William C. and Adaline Bennett Nichols, parents of Mrs. H., were also born in New York, the former in Genesee County, the latter in Steuben County. Mr. Nichols died in Michigan, January 29, 1862. Mrs. N. resides in Michigan. Mr. H. enlisted in the Union army, June 6, 1861, in Company H, 8th Regiment O. V. I., served seven months, and was discharged on account of disability. He re-enlisted January 2, 1864, in Company M, 11th Michigan Cavalry, and was engaged in a good many skirmishes and a few battles. Mr. H. settled in Fulton County, in 1868. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan. Business, farmer and miller, section 23.

EUSTACE LEGGETT, son of John M. and Mary A. (Harris) Leggett, who were born in Vermont, October 4, 1811, and August 10, 1816, the former of whom died in Ashland County, Ohio, September 7, 1845, the latter resides in Fulton County, was born in Fulton County, Ohio, February 5, 1841. He was married in Pioneer, Williams County, Ohio, June 10, 1866, to Anna M. Fulton, who was born in Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio, June 15, 1849. They have three children: Julia Ann, born December 2, 1867; John P., born August 30, 1872, and Clinton H., born August 13, 1874. Mr. Leggett has one sister, Mrs. Eliza Parker, of New Hampshire. Mrs. Leggett has two sisters, Emma and Martha (Mrs. Elliott), of Williams County. Peter V. and Martha (Downs) Fulton, parents of Mrs. Leggett, were born, the former in Ashland County, Ohio, February 26, 1820, and the latter in Mansfield in 1825; she died in Williams County, Ohio, where Mr. Fulton now resides, October 4, 1855. Mr. Fulton was captain in the 38th Regiment O. V. I. for three years, in the war of the Rebellion. Mr. Leggett enlisted September 25, 1861, in Co. H, 3d Ohio Cavalry, served three years and three months, was wounded in the shoulder, and was honorably discharged at the close of the war. He settled in Fulton County in 1841. Post-office, Oak Shade. Business, farmer and justice of the peace, section 28.

SAMUEL STUTESMAN, son of David and Elizabeth (Blair) Stutesman, both of whom were born and died in Maryland, the former when Samuel was a child, the latter when he was fourteen years of age, was born in Washington County, Maryland, August 29, 1806. He has been three times married. His first wife was Sarah Welch, by whom he had eleven children: James (deceased), David (deceased), Susannah (deceased), William (deceased), Samuel (deceased), Sarah, who resides in Fulton County, Thomas (deceased), Mary and Lucinda, who reside in Fulton County, George (deceased), and Jeremiah (deceased). His second wife was Mary A. Waites, of England, by whom he had two children—Charles H. and John W., deceased. Mr. Stutesman was married a third time to Rebecca Noggle, daughter of Samuel and Catharine (Waltman) Noggle, of Pennsylvania, in Fulton County, May 14, 1853. Mrs. Stutesman was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, December 14, 1811. Her father died in 1837, and her mother in 1819. Mr. Stutesman had two sons in the Union army. Thomas enlisted in September, 1861, in the 3d Ohio Cavalry. He was actively engaged in a number of hard fought battles, and was taken prisoner in 1864 and sent to Andersonville, where he died after being confined two months. James enlisted February, 1862, in the 100th Regiment O. V. I. He was wounded and taken prisoner, but was exchanged, and was instantly killed in the battle of Atlanta, August 6, 1864. Mr. Stutesman settled in Fulton County in 1831. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan. Business, farmer and dairyman, section 14.

HENRY WEAVER, son of James and Phoebe (Height) Weaver, the former of Michigan, the latter of New York, was born in Rochester, New York, October 26, 1824. He was married in Hillsdale County, Michigan, January 3, 1855, to Phoebe, daughter of William and Adaline (Bennett) Nichols, of Michigan, who was born in New York, January 3, 1838. They have three children: Nathan, born October 13, 1855; William, born August 3, 1857; Adaline, born July 28, 1860. Mr. Weaver enlisted in Battery I, 1st Michigan Heavy Artillery, in August, 1862, was engaged in a number of battles, and received an honorable discharge at the close of his three years' service. Mr. Weaver settled in Fulton County in 1867. Post-office, Morenci, Mich. Business, farmer, section 24.

ANDREW J. ONWELLER was born in Fulton County, Ohio, June 24, 1842. He is a son of William and Susannah Onweller, of Maryland; the former, born May 29, 1811, died March 20, 1864; the latter, born December 24, 1804, died October 19, 1849. They had a family of six children: James, Martha (deceased), Samuel, Andrew, Susannah (deceased), and William. The subject of this sketch was married July 3, 1870, to Sophia Wilcox, who was born in Branch County, Michigan, November 18, 1847. They have one son, Charles, born January 20, 1872. George W. and Sophia Wilcox, parents of Mrs. Onweller, were born, the former in Canada, the latter in Michigan, and had a family of seven children: Joanna, Maria, Sophia, Alice H., George W., Ambrose N., and Albert. Samuel Onweller was killed in the battle before Richmond, October 13, 1864. He belonged to Company I, 67th Regiment O. V. I., and was supporting the colors of the regiment when he was killed. Post-office, Morenci, Mich. Business, farmer, section 23.

born August 8, 1863; Arden G., born December 16, 1865; James W., born June 13, 1866; Charles D., born March 8, 1868, died August 8, 1870. Mrs. Onweller died April 19, 1869. Mr. Onweller was married a second time in Morenci, Michigan, October 2, 1870, to Lydia A., daughter of Edward and Huldah Robinson, of New York, who was born in Fulton County, Ohio, February 22, 1847. She is the mother of two children, an infant son, born and died in August, 1871, and Gertie May, born February 23, 1873, and died March 5, 1874. Mr. J. Onweller enlisted in Company A, 68th Regiment O. V. I., November 9, 1861, took part in the battles of Fort Donaldson and Pittsburg Landing, and was honorably discharged on account of physical disability June 24, 1862. Mr. Onweller settled in this county in 1837. Post-office, Morenci, Mich. Business, farmer and dairyman, section 13.

ADALINE NICHOLS was born in Steuben County, New York, June 1, 1811. She was married in New York, April 20, 1831, to William Nichols, son of Ezra and Avis (Sabins) Nichols, of New Hampshire, who was born in Bath, Steuben County, New York, in 1810. They had a family of fourteen children: David, born April, 1832; Avis, born January 3, 1834, died in Clinton County, Michigan, February 26, 1863; Henry and Helen, born October 20, 1835, the former died in Toledo, February 9, 1841; James D., born November 6, 1838, died in St. Louis Hospital, February 15, 1862; Phoebe, born January 3, 1840; William C., born November 1, 1842; Philetus, born March 12, 1844; Francis and Franklin, born in October, 1846, the former deceased in 1849, the latter in February, 1847; Douglas J., born October 20, 1848, died October 19, 1849; Owen B., born October 9, 1850, died February 2, 1851; William, born February 3, 1852; Julia, born February 3, 1854. Three sons belonged to the Union army; James D. enlisted in Company F, 42d Regiment Ill. V., served four months, and was wounded at the battle of Springfield, Missouri, and died from the effects. Philetus enlisted in 1864, in Company M, 11th Regiment Michigan Cavalry, served three years, and died at Mt. Sterling, from bursting a blood vessel. David enlisted in 1861, in a Missouri Regiment, served till the close of the war, was in a number of battles, and was honorably discharged. Jacob and Julia Benjamin, parents of Mrs. Nichols, were born in New York, and died in 1842, and 1815. Julia Benjamin's father and uncle were killed in the last battle of the Revolutionary War. Mrs. Nichols had four sons-in-law in the Union army. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols settled in Fulton County, in 1867. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan. Business, farmer.

OLIVER TODD was born in Seneca County, Ohio, September 26, 1835, and married in Morenci, Michigan, May 5, 1861, to Lucinda Devereaux, born in Lorain County, April 20, 1844. They have a family of five children: David, born October 12, 1862; Edith E., born April 22, 1865; Austin, born March 22, 1868, died Jan. 18, 1869; Jennie M., born May 1, 1870; and Franklin E., born March 11, 1873. Harvey and Marie (Martin) Todd, parents of Mr. Todd, were born, the former in Pickaway County, Ohio, April 3, 1808, and died in Fulton, April 7, 1874; the latter in Canada, in 1809, and resides in Fulton County. Eber and Louisa (Gifford) Devereaux, parents of Mrs. Todd, were born in New York, June 11, 1811, and September 6, 1811; the former died in this township, January 25, 1864. Mr. and Mrs. Todd settled in Fulton County, in 1852. Post-office, Morenci, Michigan. Business, saw milling and extensive lumber dealer, section 20.

PETER POWERS was born in Genesee County, New York, January 20, 1819. He was a son of Peter and Urana (Clark) Powers, the former born in New York, February 12, 1783, and died in Ontario County, New York, March 6, 1829; the latter born in Genesee County, New York, May 20, 1792, and died, July 27, 1851. Mr. Powers was married in Michigan, August 17, 1845, to Julia D. Kennedy, who was born in Berkshire County, Massachusetts, May 25, 1824. Their family consists of ten children: Asahel A., born July 26, 1847; Sarah A., born April 14, 1850, married April 6, 1870, and died March 23, 1872; James A., born August 3, 1851; Mary W., born August 13, 1853; John F., born December 25, 1854; Clark W., born March 10, 1857; George W., born May 10, 1859, and died April 16, 1861; William P., born February 5, 1861; Julia E., born February 2, 1864; and Frank B., born June 16, 1868. William Henry Powers, a son of Peter Powers by a previous marriage, born August 25, 1840, enlisted in Company H, 3d Ohio Cavalry, in September, 1861. He served his country one year, and distinguished himself in several battles by daring feats of bravery as a dispatch carrier. He was taken sick and died in Lebanon, Kentucky, November 22, 1862. Mrs. Powers was among the first teachers in Fulton County. Mr. Powers